Some time ago it was suggested that Topeka have a municipal flag; now it is proposed that it have a "municipal tune." It doesn't seem possible that anything but "A Hot Time" would be accepted. That omes as near being the "city tune" aleady as anything can be. Whenever it s played at the theaters the audience rsts into applause. It is to Topekans what the "Marseillaise" is to the French. All that is needed is to have some patriotic words composed for it.

first decided to give a Wagnerian conmusic loving people of Topeka for the compositions of the famous German composer. When Prof. von Dahlen looked through the peep hole in the big curtain last night before it was rung up on the first part of the evening programme he discovered that the desire was of such weak proportions that it would not stand stimulation.

The big auditorium of the Grand looked absolutely lonely with the little group of people occupying seats together in the central portion. In comparison with the admirers of music on parison with the admirers of music on the first floor the chorus on the stage looked immense. In the balcony the looked immense. In the balcony the first three rows were spancely filled, while in the gallery a half dozen men who had decided that 25 cents' worth of music was all they could stand in one evening, sat on the wooden benches and leaned over the iron rail. That was the audience which greeted the Apollo club in their first ambitious effort to give opeka people something pretentious in

Had each one of the members of the club interested one person in attending the entertainment, with possibly a few exceptions, the entire audience of last night could be accounted for. In other words, there was but little difference, numerically, between the chorus on the stage and the audience in the auditorium and balconies of the house. From the fact that priess were very reason-

Hardly, however, would the rendition of the third act of the opera have won new admirers to Wagner, for the composition is deep and heavy, possibly too deep and heavy for the present century, in the hands of

or the present century, in the hands of any organization, and especially so, in the hands of amateur talent.

The first part of the programme, including the "Bridal Chorus," from Lohengrin, and "Hall Bright Abode," from "Tannhauser," the "Grand Love Duet" by Mrs. Parkhurst and Prof. von Dahlen and 'cello solos by Mr. Raiph Dun. len, and 'cello solos by Mr. Ralph Dun bar, of St. Joseph, was enjoyable and the z N audience was generous in its applax after each number. The 'ceilo sols of z. Ralph Dunbar, 'Moceau de Concert,' Popper's 'Gavotte,' and Schubert's 'Serenade' and the 'Flower

While citizens of Topeka insist that the new bridge be kept looking as handsome as a picture, how can it ever satisfy the artistic eye with the uriy trolley carbridge allongside of it? How is that question to be settled?

Another "globe-trotter" struck town yesterday. Ho seemed disappointed because the people did not eye him with wonder. Topeka is growing tired of globe-trotters. The rest of us have to work for a living.

It is probable that no action will be taken on President J. W. Priddy of the school hoard, who represents the First ward, but who now resides in the Third ward. He claims that his present remidence is but temporary.

Captain W. C. Dutton, temperance lecturer from Texas, will probably remain in Topeka several weeks and conduct temperance meetings at the churches. A. B. Hulit Interested in Moving 26,000 Indians to Mexico.

A. B. Hullt, of Topeka, and a prime nover in the Mexican Land company, is to be a modern Moses to lead the tribes f Chickasaw and Choctaw from their homes in the Indian Territory through the wilderness to new homes in the Republic of Mexico. The plan puts to hame all schemes of co-operative colonles and expeditions to Liberia. The plan is to form a new state and a new government. The location of the state is in Mexico and the government will be by and for the Chickesaw and Choctaw Thes, comprising 26,000 Indians.

The Mexican Land company has had tract of find as large as the state of thode Island conceded to them by the Mexican government, says A. B. Huit. The company proposes to sell the land to the Indians and to assist them in forming their government. The Indians are not satisfied with the Dawes treaty. but they say they were induced to sign that treaty by unfair means and now it is their wish to seek new hunting grounds and to govern themselves.Last week the two tribes of Indians met in convention and elected 15 of the most prominent Indians of the tribes to go to Mexico and inspect the land. It was decided that the proposition of the Mexican Land company should be ac-cepted if the land was as represented by the company. Nine of the Indians elected have seen the land and they are load in their presse and product that week the two tribes of Indians met in week the two tribes of Indians met in convention and elected 15 of the most prominent Indians of the tribes to go to Mexico and inspect the land. It was decided that the proposition of the Mexican Land company should be accepted if the land was as represented by the company. The Indians are so sure that the land will be acceptable that they have already elected officers elected have seen the land loud in their praise and predict that the other six will surely look with favor upon the proposition. The Indians are so sure that the land will be acceptable that they have already elected officers who are to hold their positions until the first regular election that will be held in the borders of the new state. The 15 who were appointed to inspect the land will go with Mr. Hullt on December 20 and as soon after their report as is possible and as soon after their report as is possible.

Mr. Stryker said: "Of course we have to do just as required by law. I do not do just as required by law. I do not do just as required by law. I do not do not to be hard in the matter. and move to new hunting grounds.

President Diaz has been fully apprised of this gigantic scheme, so says Mr. Hulit, and his consent has been obtained. The only condition that has been made relative to the immigration been made relative to the immigration of the 26,000 Indians is that their government must conform with the laws of the Republic of Mexico.

The plan of transporting the 26,000 Indians to their new home has not yet been arranged, but the trip will probably not be made until spring. The scheme is so large that it may fall through of its own weight.

W. C. Stagg submitted a letter to the board in which he asked that his claim for $25 be either allowed or rejected. Three years ago William Macferran asked Mr. Stagg for figures which he had prepared about school district No. 22, part of which is within the school board's jurisdiction. Mr. Stagg had prepared a detailed statement of the district, having spent several days in completing it and his figures were those of an expert. He had made the report for the school district commissioners but had kept a copy. He therefore gave but had kept a copy. He therefore gave Mr. Macferran the copy. The understanding was that if the figures would be of use to the board in making estimates of the district he should receive mates of the district he should receive $25. That was three years ago. Last night Mr. Stagg appeared before the board and explained his case. He said: 'I want you either to allow this or refuse it. I did the work in good faith, and the fact that it was a copy makes it none the less a business transaction. I ask you to allow this bill if the figures have been of may use to you." ures have been of any use to you."

It was a repetition of the flurrios that have taken place in December lately. There was none for sale and the market went up 15c and a cent ut a jump until it reached 29c. Probably not to exceed 15,000 hushels of wheat was purchased on the advance. Then the market declined as suddenly as it had advanced dropping to 375c, then taking one jumpt o 38c and back to 375c. Brokers acting for the bull elique stopped the advances by offering 25,000 bushels or 30,000 bushels. The market for May was strong opening 15c on covering by shorts during the fireworks in December. It subsequently reacted to 395c. Liverpool was practically unchanged at the opening, but showed 3d decline at 130. Northwestern receipts showed a 131 monthly offering off. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 1,031 cars, against 1,043 cars has week and 482 cars a year ago. Chicago receipts were 252 cars. Contract stocks for the week increased 255,000 bushels at Chicago in spite of the heavy receipts. CORN—Corn was very quiet but strong, helped by the advance in wheat. Receipts were liberal 53f cars, and caused a slightly easier feeling at the opening. Shorts covered to a moderate extent on the advance. May opened a shade lower at 285c 285c, advanced to 355c 285c, and reacted to 255c.

OATS—The market for oats was quiet but firm in sympathy with wheat and colon. Receipts were 397 cars. May opened unchanged at 226c 285c, sold at 225c and reacted to 255c.

PROVISIONS—Provisions were strong and a little higher, helped by the grain markets and steady hog prices. January pork opened 25c higher at 35.25c.
